

ENGAGEMENT

Engage members and other stakeholders to advance ARN's mission

- Expand leadership development initiatives to advance committed, high-quality, diverse, future leaders
- Expand services and value add offerings
- Understand and define areas of practice in the rehabilitation profession and develop value propositions that align with needs across career stages/functions
- Expand opportunities for expanding the conversation regarding diversity, equity and inclusion within ARN and amongst its board, committees and member communities

VISIBILITY

Define and position ARN as the leader of evidence-based rehabilitation nursing, education, and practice

- Champion excellence in the rehabilitation nurse workforce

KNOWLEDGE & PRACTICE

Advance the science and art of rehabilitation nursing through content that is based on research, evidence, and advocacy

- Promote research through financial and educational initiatives
- Facilitate evidence-based practice through innovative educational offerings
- Serve as the primary rehabilitation nursing source for legislation, policy formation, regulatory initiatives, and guideline development
- Advance sustainable growth through the integration of a mission-aligned business model